Comment

PCR tests can yield false negative outcomes in the following cases:

- a) if the number of bacteria in the test is low, inappropriate sample dilution takes place;
- b) amplification inhibitors are present;
- c) the PCR method tests the presence of genes; therefore, a differentiation between dead and live bacteria cannot be made, carrying the potential to deliver false positive results.

When interpreting results, clinical aspects of patients should be taken into consideration upon reaching a decision.

This test is conducted with registered reagent approved for use by South Korea and Kazakhstan MOH.

COVID-19 (SARS-CoV-2) is government-controlled infectious disease. COVID-19 infection can be confirmed by PCR test and the positive case will be reported to CES (center for sanitary and epidemiology).

This test is carried out by the NAAT method. (Nucleic Acid Amplification Test).

However, please keep your personal hygiene to prevent COVID-19 (SARS-CoV-2) infection. You should refrain from unnecessary
